

Press Release – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Contact: Kelly Nutty, Director of Resource Management
920-378-8527, knutty@riverviewgardens.org

Riverview Gardens Receives $100,000 Leadership Matching Gift for Mission

Appleton, Wisconsin- October 31, 2016 - Riverview Gardens, Inc., a non-profit organization in Appleton, WI, received a generous leadership matching gift of $100,000 from Mary Beth Nienhaus to help the organization reach financial sustainability.

“We are humbled by Mary Beth’s unwavering commitment to helping our community members in need be part of their own solution,” said Riverview Gardens Executive Director/President/Founder, Cindy Sahotsky. “With this generous matching gift commitment, Ms. Nienhaus encourages others to join her in supporting Riverview Gardens’ mission, and she will match dollar-for-dollar all donations up to a total of $100,000. This matching gift commitment is a remarkable opportunity to become involved with our organization’s mission and future.”

“I am so proud to help Riverview Gardens reach financial sustainability. It is a leader in providing transformative job training for our community members in need,” said Mary Beth Nienhaus. “I am inspired by Riverview Gardens’ vision to create social enterprises on a former golf course and country club to provide unlimited on-the-job training opportunities for people in need. I hope the community joins me in contributing to one of the most socially innovative and collaborative agencies I know.”

To have gifts to Riverview Gardens matched, simply make a financial gift between now and the end of the year. Gifts can be mailed to Riverview Gardens, Inc., 1101 S. Oneida Street, Appleton, WI 54915. Donation is available online through <http://riverviewgardens.org/donate/>.

Riverview Gardens’ mission is to provide job training for people in need, to transform their lives and our community.
